6. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

☐ July 1, 2013

Everything is lined up for Canada Day.

☐ Adopt-a-Road

The Committee would like to see the two year time limit removed from the adopt-a-road program.

☐ Spring Park

There has been no update as of yet.

☐ Garden of the Week

Garden of the week will be given to a home on McPherson that has recently updated their yard.

☐ Halloween

Agassiz is holding a Halloween dance on September 27, 2013 and the Committee will contact them to see if the straw/hay and pumpkins could be used in the plaza in Harrison once they are finished with them.

There was discussion of having a costume contest for the children in the plaza. City of Chilliwack holds a dog parade which would be a great event in Harrison. Tourism Harrison will be approached for these events.

☐ Wildlife Signs

Moved by Maureen Wendt
Seconded by Jane Kivett

THAT we investigate the purchase of a wildlife sign to be placed at Fred Hardy Bridge.

AND THAT Communities in Bloom will forward ideas on the content of the sign.

CARRIED
UNANIMOUSLY

☐ Front Entrance

The front entrance looks amazing. It would be nice to see some pavers along the grass area to prevent any damage to the grass.

☐ Historic Plaques

Moved by Councillor Jackson
Seconded by Heather Coxon

THAT the first historic plaque be placed on the Village Office.

CARRIED
